

ANI Mission: "Christians improving lives and relationships"

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

- Suit a senior leader with an understanding and commitment to community support and the counselling process.
- A capacity to build on solid organisational achievements.
- Must demonstrate an active Christian commitment.

Anglicare Northern Inland:

- Is part of the Anglican Diocese of Armidale which is located in the North and North West of New South Wales.
- Is a provider of non-clinical mental health and community support services providing program diversity, a commitment to quality as well as an intent to facilitate personal recovery for all who utilise our services.
- Is a caring Christian organisation that seeks to facilitate change in people's lives in the local community and society as a whole. WE aim to do that through the influence of counselling, education, community support, departmental liaison and local parish co-operation.
- Facilitates, encourages and enables people to find healing and reconciliation within themselves and in relationships.

Skills required:

- Strong, energetic, inclusive leadership style
- Experience with strategic planning and policy development
- Experience in dealing with Government, community sectors and peer organisations
- Strong financial and commercial acumen
- Superior communication and people leadership skills.

For further information in relation to this exciting role please contact David Maddigan, Chairman (Phone: 0438001230/email: dtcmcon@bigpond.com). Please submit your resume, cover letter and the names of three referees (Including one from your minister/pastor) in Word Format to the Chairman by 31st March 2016.